FIN-PCC-PAY-0003-2017

Dated the 7th September 2017

RESOLUTION

Subject: Revised Scales of Pay, 2017 for employees other than regular State Government employees.

Following the revision of scales of pay for regular State Government employees vide Resolution No.26342/F, dated.07.09.2017, the State Government have decided to consider extension of revised scales of pay for other categories of employees broadly in the following manner with detailed guidelines to be issued by the respective Administrative Departments with the concurrence of the Finance Department:

1. The revised scale will be extended to the Work Charged employees with effect from the 1st January, 2016 with the same condition for payment of arrears and current as specified for regular Government Servants.
2. The revised scale may be adopted by the Urban Local Bodies for their employees provided the respective Urban Local Bodies are able to meet the additional financial burden from their own sources. No specific grant-in-aid for this purpose will be provided by the Government.
3. The revised scales can be extended to the employees engaged against approved regular posts bearing regular scales of pay of the Grant-in-aid educational institutions subject to usual mechanism. The educational institutions presently under "Block grant" or partial GIA, being a separate category, are not included in the category of Aided educational institutions for this purpose.
